Identifying Point of View in the Works of Roald Dahl

Directions: Loved children's author Roald Dahl writes texts from a variety of perspectives. Read the following passages, determine the narrator's point of view, and explain your answer.

Points of View: first person, second person, third person limited, third person omniscient

1. James and the Giant Peach by Roald Dahl

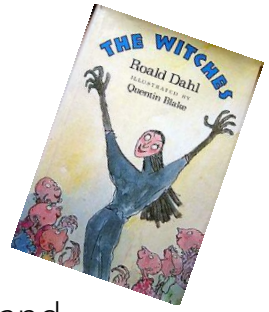

Until he was four years old, James Henry Trotter had had a happy life. He lived peacefully with his mother and father in a beautiful house beside the sea. There were always plenty of other children for him to play with, and there was a sandy beach for him to run about on.

2. The Witches by Roald Dahl

I looked round and I saw a hideous painted and powdered witch' s face starring down at me, and the face opened its mouth and yelled triumphantly, "It' s here! It' s behind the screen! Come and get it!" The witch reached out a gloved hand and grabbed me by the hair but I twisted free and jumped away.

3. Charlie and the Great Glass Elevator by Roald Dahl

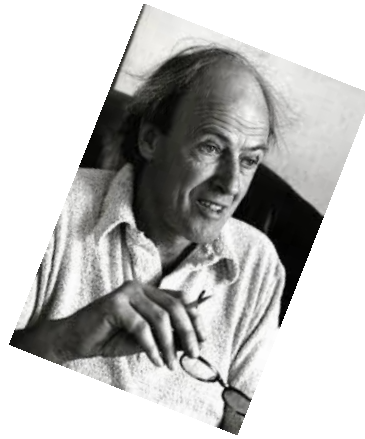

When Mr. Wonka had finished reading the recipe, he carefully folded the paper and put it back into his pocket. "A very, very complicated mixture," he said. "So can you wonder it took me so long to get it just right?" He held the bottle up high and gave it a little shake and the pills rattled loudly inside it, like glass beads.

4. Television by Roald Dahl

Go throw your TV set away,
And in its place you can install
A lovely bookshelf on the wall.
Then fill the shelves with lots of books,
Ignoring all the dirty looks,
The screams and yells, the bites and kicks,
And children hitting you with sticks-
